Who We Are

The General Colin L. Powell Leadership Academy, is a school within a school, military program that offers a one-of-kind, college preparatory, science-technology, engineering -math (STEM) based, public charter high school option. Students belong to an Army Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (JROTC) model with a commitment to leadership, discipline, academic excellence, and character development.

We are not a military recruitment program, we are a leadership academy with the mission to motivate young people to be better citizens.

What We Do

The General Colin L. Powell Leadership Academy offers a challenging and engaging academic environment where military values and ideals are woven into the entire curriculum to inspire cadets to become better scholars, leaders, and citizens.

Cadets are taught the value of:

- Loyalty
- Duty
- Respect
- Selfless Service
- Honor
- Integrity
- Personal Responsibility
- Physical Fitness

*Education to develop
character, integrity,
teamwork, courage and commitment!*

Program Highlights Include:

- Leadership & Community Service
- Junior Achievement
- Citizenship
- College Visits
- Project Lead The Way (PLTW)
- Drill Team
